

A Positive Life - AutinDT | An immersive and engaging dance theatre experience for secondary schools

Education Offer

We are aiming to help teachers and schools to deliver good Sex and Relationships Education within PSHE via the presentation of a live performance alongside practical performing arts workshops.

We can also help achieve the National Curriculum aims for physical education through dance in supporting the students with leading healthy and active lives, developing creativity and performing arts skills.

Autin Dance Theatre is a Birmingham-based professional company that produces engaging artistic performances, and provides an extensive learning and participation programme. “The company draws on contemporary social issues and events making work which is beautifully crafted, accessible and relevant”

A Positive Life is an immersive theatre experience inspired by the interpersonal stories of five characters around sex, love and relationships. Featuring dance, physical theatre and spoken word, the original scenography (performance designs) of the piece and the elements of audience interactions will move you and transport you to the heart of the story. The piece runs for 50 minutes and is aimed at 11-17 year olds with an uplifting and engaging message on self-love, sexual health topics and sex ed' stories.

We are available to be in a school for a daily subsidised rate of £450.00 to deliver bespoke packages activities of live performance, talks/creative dialogue and workshops from May 2017.

A Positive Life - AutinDT (live performance) We are working towards a 3-year project including creative workshops with Young People, consultations, research...

We believe effective Sex and Relationship Education within PSHE is essential if young people are to make responsible and well informed decisions about their lives.

A Positive Life is an original accessible performance that engages with young audiences about issues and stories in a safe environment.

“Engaging, intriguing and eye-opening” <http://www.teenwirral.com/autin-dance-theatre-review>

Artsmark & Arts Award - We have Gold and Bronze/Silver trained members of staff that can lead Arts Award in your school, and we can design our workshops to incorporate the delivery of Arts Award for your students.

Our Dance Artists - All our dance artists and performers have up-to-date DBS checks, insurance and are highly skilled in delivering workshops to young people and adults. More information can be found on our website www.autindancetheatre.com about individual artists.

We would love to hear from you and talk about potential opportunities to work together.
